

New appointment at Muntons Malted Ingredients

On the 16th February, Rebecca Roberts was appointed to the position of PA to MMI Sales and Marketing Director.

Rebecca joins us having moved back to her roots in East Anglia after spending the last few years in London as a business manager for an HR consultancy company, some of this time was spent based in Australia to establish a new office in the Antipodes.

She brings with her a wealth of administrative knowledge and skills; has a good understanding of the demands that overseas trade will bring and is looking forward to the challenges that her new international position will bring.

“This is a great opportunity for me to become part of the MMI team. Joining Muntons was one of my ambitions, as their reputation as a good employer is well known in the local region.” Said Rebecca. She continued: “I am looking forward to working with our overseas trading partners and embracing the challenges that this will bring.”

Reporting to Chloe Richardson, Rebecca will be directly assisting the MMI Sales and Marketing Director, Andrew Suett, in handling agents, distributor and customer enquiries.

Chloe commented: “We all wish Rebecca every success with her new role and are confident that she will establish herself quickly as an invaluable member of the team.”

This new appointment is part of a general strengthening of the MMI Sales Support area in response to the growing interest worldwide in malted ingredients.
